

WILLIMANTIC

Norwich Bulletin, Willimantic Office,
23 Church street, Telephone 104.

The storm of Thursday although not doing damage amounting to a great monetary loss in Willimantic and vicinity, resulted in damage here and there which kept the trouble-men of the telephone and electric companies busy, while the heavy rainfall left plenty of work for members of the street department.

The Rockville-Willimantic Lighting Company suffered to some extent and power was cut off from this city at times during the day and night. Falling limbs and broken wires were given as the main cause. The Southern New England Telephone Company experienced trouble and Friday morning there were 120 lines affecting 800 stations out of order. Toll lines between this city and Norwich and Hartford were out of commission from midnight until Friday forenoon. The cause of the trouble on the Norwich wire was a tree at Williams crossing that had been blown over on the wire, breaking it. Hartford trouble came from a similar cause, the tree causing the break being on Skinner's farm at Andover. Fifty per cent. of the stations of the Lebanon division were out of commission Friday morning.

Local companies were not alone in the trouble caused by the high wind and driving rain. The Connecticut Company endeavored to send their first car north in the morning Friday scheduled to arrive in this city at 5:15, but it got as far as Baltic and went dead, when it came over onto the South Windham power. Men were sent out to locate the trouble and after a search of over six hours the cause was located, and a limb that had been blown over against a high tension wire, south of South Windham, was removed, minor repairs made and the first trolley car arrived here at 3:05 in the afternoon. Passengers of the morning cars were taken back to Norwich and made their way to this city by jitney or by train later in the morning. Pupils dependent upon the trolleys to take them to school were absent in many cases or made the trip by automobile.

Limbs of trees decorated the highways on all sides of the city, but were removed early Friday. The water in the Willimantic river rose to a high stage during the night and Friday morning the dam at the Quindick-Windham company and at the American Thread Company were spilling water in torrents. Monday and Tuesday both these plants were forced to shut down owing to low water and repairs at the gates of the dam at the Quindick-Windham plant.

The local Methodist church building which has always been decked in by during the summer had the vines ripped entirely off the north side of the church by the high winds. It is hoped that the damage is not permanent as it will be the work of years to grow the vines back to where it was before the storm. The streets in the hill section of the city suffered the greatest damage, as usual during a heavy fall of rain. The top surface was washed out deeply and the dirt carried away down the hill by the rushing waters to be deposited in the catch basins at the foot of the street. These basins were almost entirely filled with dirt Friday morning and will need to be cleaned out or the sewers will be blocked by hardening soil.

Superintendent Samuel Anderson of the Connecticut Company stated Friday that beginning Friday, Oct. 15, the fare from Willimantic to South Coventry will be 25 cents each way. The trip has been divided into two zones of 10 cents each. The first payment of ten cents carries the passenger from Willimantic to Perkins Corners, the second from Perkins Corners to the end of the line. The fare on the Willimantic-Norwich line will be fifty cents for the entire trip. To Baltic the fare will remain 20 cents, the fare to South Windham being 10 cents, as by present schedule.

Mrs. Fred W. Watrous left Friday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen H. Diminy of Addison, N. Y.

As election day draws near the usual gatherings of men off in the corners can be seen almost any time. Sample ballots have been placed at the office of Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton and voters can have them on request. Town officials will furnish any information about voting that may be desired.

Thomas Harrigan was charged with breach of the peace at the Friday-morning session of the police court and pled guilty. He was arrested Thursday night upon complaint of Nathan Shilburg of Clark street, who claimed that Harrigan cut his clothesline. Harrigan stated that the line was not the property of Shilburg but belonged to the landlady who lived upstairs. According to his story he wanted to hang out a pair of overalls and found the line filled with clothes belonging to Shilburg. When he asked Shilburg to remove his clothing he was told to go to hell, and the cutting of the line followed. The case was nolleed upon payment of costs amounting to $5.85.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Dinneen of 175 Windham road and L. G. Gerry have returned from Springfield, Mass., having attended the convention of the New England Photographers.

Wilfred Lewis Vagstad, infant son of Louis and Adeline Brouseau Vagstad, died Friday morning from infantile trouble. He is survived by his parents.

Eleanor B. Crane, 86, died Friday morning at her home, No. 217 Windham road. She was a farmer by occupation but had retired from active work. She was born in Mansfield Sept. 10, 1834, the son of Miller and Sally Bennett Crane. Besides his widow he leaves

13 Eggs A Day From 17 Young Pullets

Mrs. Niles Starts Six-months Old Pullets Laying. Tells How.

Early in November, I bought a package of Don Sung and started giving it to 17 young pullets. In the first 30 days they laid 133 lovely eggs. All through December I got 11 to 12 eggs a day.

Niles, R. F. D. 2, Lucerne, Cal.

Mrs. Niles found how to start young pullets laying and keep them laying all winter. She says that it is a good profit business, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It takes up the egg-laying streak, and gets the eggs to mature, new color or wet the weather.

You can obtain Don Sung from your druggist or poultry supply dealer, or send $1.04 (includes war tax) for a package by mail. Burrell-Dugger Co., 14 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ellen J. Capen were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the funeral parlors of Jay K. Shepard. The services were conducted by Rev. C. H. Harley, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Burial was in Willimantic cemetery.

Charles H. Williams of Plainfield was nominated for state senator Thursday by the democrats of the 29th senatorial district. Owing to the stormy weather but three of the nine towns in the district were represented. The delegates were: From Windham, Valentine L. Murphy, Arthur Racicot, George H. Racicot, Frank P. Fenton, proxy for William A. Buck, and Daniel P. Dunne, proxy for Louis J. Flynn; Sterling Samuel Mallaburn and Leon K. Sayles; Canterbury, H. W. Goff, Valentine L. Murphy, chairman of the 29th district, called the meeting to order at 11:20. George H. Backus of Windham being chosen chairman and H. W. Goff of Canterbury was clerk.

The following were the committees appointed—Resolutions, Frank P. Fenton and Leon K. Sayles; credentials, Arthur Racicot and Samuel Mallaburn. Mr. Williams was placed in nomination by Valentine L. Murphy, the vote being unanimous, the clerk being instructed to cast one affirmative ballot. The following resolution was adopted:

We, the delegates assembled in the 29th democratic district senatorial convention on this 30th day of September, 1920, hereby endorse the platform of the democratic party adopted at San Francisco and New Haven and the nominees of the party for state and national ticket. We commend our nominee for the state senate, Charles H. Williams of Plainfield, to the electors of this district as a man who has proven his sterling Americanism by service abroad in the World War. Although beyond the age of service at the outbreak of the war he volunteered his services and served with distinction upon the battlefields of Europe. While a member of the Connecticut legislature his vote was always cast in the interest of his constituents. We believe if he is elected his experience as a legislator and his patriotic service in the World War peculiarly fit him for a broad view of the great questions that will be set

The wind and rain did much damage to the beautiful trees on South Main street. During Thursday night another storm came, blowing down many of the trees in front of the Kahn property broke off falling across the road and breaking a branch from another elm. The electric light and telephone wires were broken and pulled down. About seven o'clock Friday morning, an enormous branch in itself as large as a small tree fell from a large elm in Henry Grey's yard. It struck the house, blowing a hole in the roof and shingles. Miss Belle Frey was on her way home and in two minutes would have been directly under the branch. The wires were again pulled down.

A maple in John Barnett's yard was split, but has been banded together again. Three electric light poles were broken, and the lights were intermittent. The district includes the towns of Stafford and Union.

20 Platt Street Sold.
Through the agency of A. C. Cowell, Bruno Pedace sold his 3-room cottage to Michael Tramblie. The cottage consists of 3 rooms and has all modern improvements.

Broad Theatre.
The bold buccannery of "Treasure Island" live again in Maurice Tourneur's remarkable photoplay production of the Stevenson classic, which is the feature attraction at the Broad Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Tourneur is a master when it comes to turning great sea stories into motion pictures. He proved it in "The Life Line" and "Conrad's Victory." "Treasure Island" contains this conviction. The famous production has retained on the screen all the romance and villainy of the Spanish Main that Stevenson knew so well how to portray in a brilliant and gripping novel. He has reproduced the old-fashioned sea story, where lived young Jim Hawkins and his mother. The coming of Bill Bones of Black Dog; the fight over the sea chest and the capture of the chart showing the location of Captain Flint's treasure; by Jim; the expedition to seek the buried gold; the mutiny; the battle with the pirates; the escape; and the final success—all the absorbing episodes that have made Stevenson's book a delight live vividly on the screen. In the role of young Jim Hawkins, Shirley Mason gives a more charming performance than any boy actor could hope to offer. Lon Chaney is a master of malignancy as Pew and Merry. Charles Ogden, Al Filson and Sydney Dean do fine work. But the chief credit must go to Mr. Tourneur. He has made of this Paramount A-zero production a picture no one, screen lover or not, can afford to miss.

Pearl White in "The Black Secret," the Pathé News and a Rainbow comedy will make up the remainder of the bill for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Special matinee for school children, Monday at 4 p. m.

Today's bill consists of Owen Moore in "The Desperate Hero," Madge Kennedy in "Help Yourself," and the Pathé News. Four shows today at 1:15, 3, 5:15 and 8:15.

TOOK PHYSIC EVERY NIGHT

Then She Heard of "FRUIT-A-TIVES" and Cured Herself of Constipation

MRS. JOHN CAPOZZI
Ashford, New York.

"I feel it my duty to tell you what 'Fruit-a-tives' or Fruit Liver Tablets did for me.

I tried several kinds of physic for over three years; and, of course, while I took it every night my bowels would move; but as soon as I stopped taking physic, I would be constipated and would have Piles terribly. I heard of 'Fruit-a-tives' and bought one box and took them. Now I am not troubled any more with Constipation and no more Piles. 'Fruit-a-tives' did for me what no other medicine ever did; they left no after-effects, and now I do not have to use physic.

I recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' to all my friends."
